The Canine Good Citizen Test (CGC), recognized by the American Kennel Club (AKC), is the standard for measuring a dog's basic obedience and socialization skills. By preparing your dog for the CGC, you're not only ensuring public safety but also strengthening your bond and deepening your understanding of canine behavior.

Inside This Indispensable Guide:

- □

Step-by-step preparation: Break down the CGC test into manageable sections, each with clear instructions and helpful tips.

- □

Expert training techniques: Discover proven methods for teaching your dog the required commands and behaviors.

- □

Real-life scenarios: Prepare your dog for success in everyday situations, such as meeting strangers, walking on a leash, and greeting other dogs.

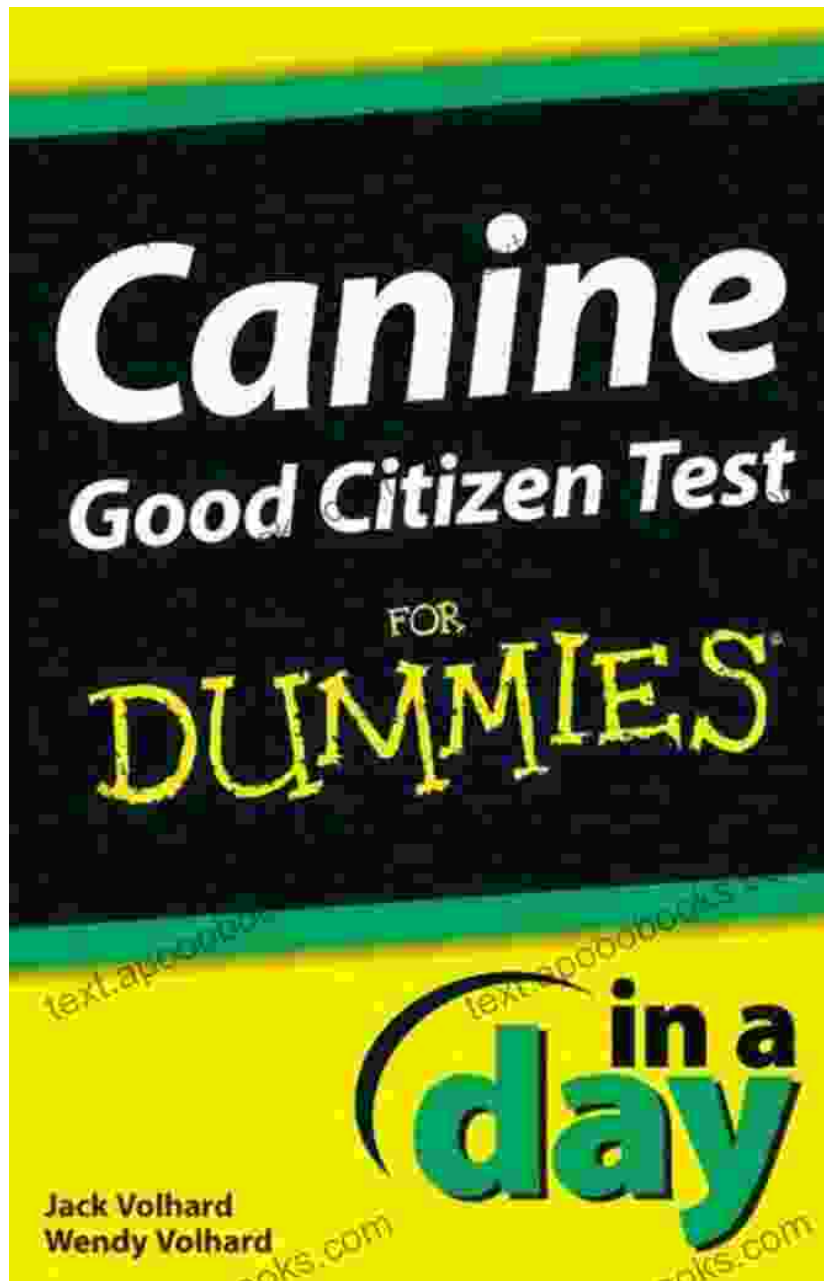

- □

Practice exercises: Test your dog's progress and fine-tune their skills with numerous practice exercises.

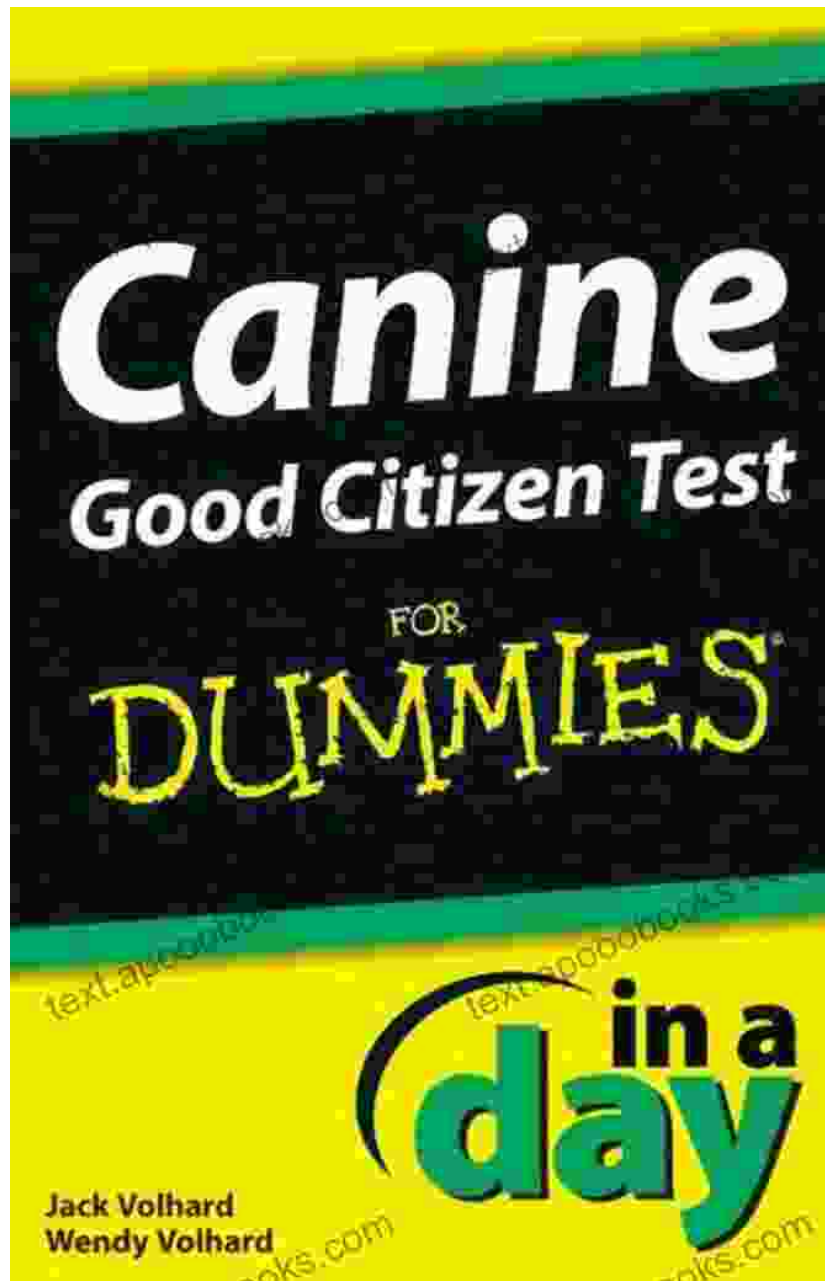

- □

Expert insights: Gain valuable insights from certified dog trainers and animal behaviorists.

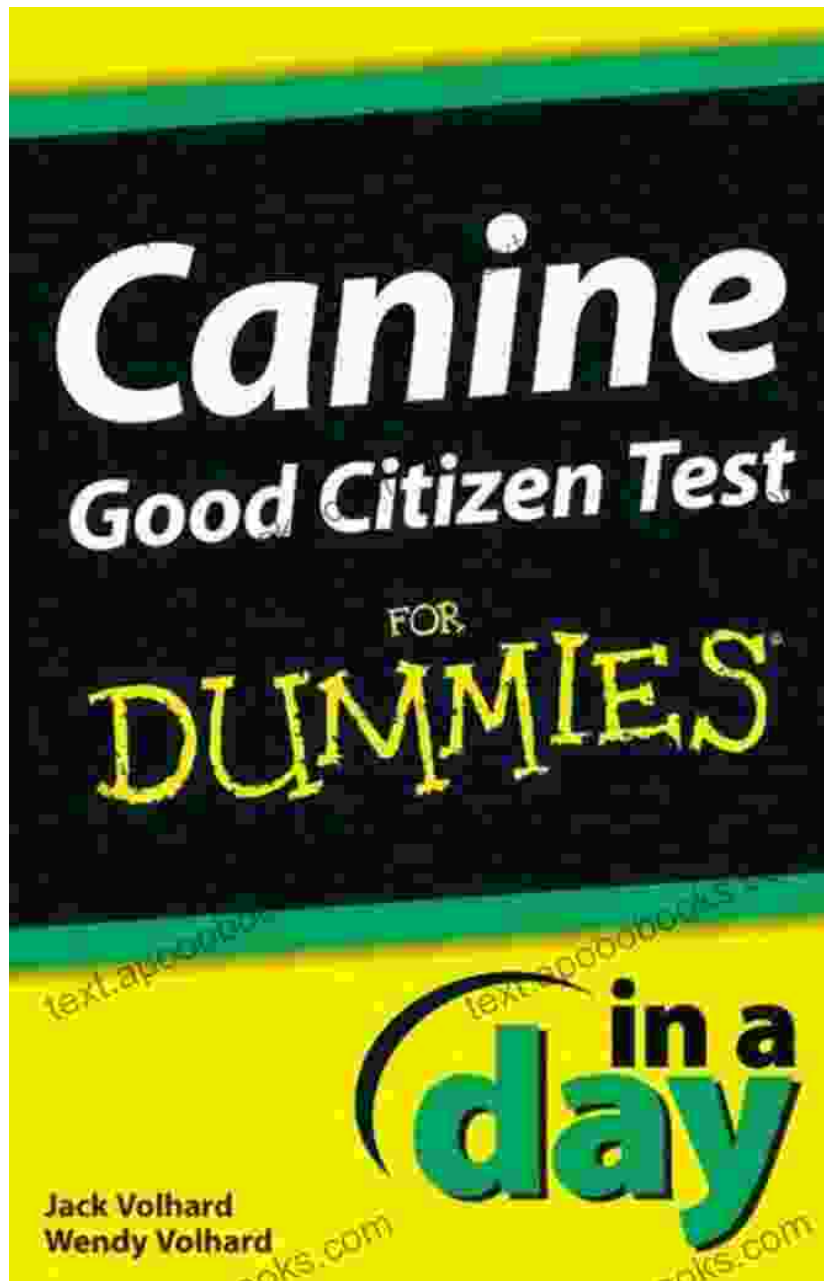

Benefits of Passing the CGC Test:

- Enhanced Public Safety: Demonstrate your dog's reliability and reduce the risk of accidental incidents.

- Social Acceptance: Open doors to dog-friendly venues, such as parks, restaurants, and hotels.

- Improved Bond: Strengthen your relationship with your dog through a shared training experience.

- Peace of Mind: Know that your dog is prepared to handle various social situations with ease.

- Foundation for Advanced Training: The CGC provides a solid foundation for future training, opening up new possibilities for your dog.
