A Tapestry of Courage, Sacrifice, and Triumph

Join the indomitable Carter sisters as they navigate the tumultuous final chapter of the war. From the bustling streets of London to the battle-scarred landscapes of Europe, they confront their fears and forge unbreakable bonds that will shape the women they become.

Witness the unwavering spirit of Lily, the eldest sister, as she serves as a nurse on the front lines, tending to the wounded and offering solace to those in need. Alongside her, the free-spirited Harriet defies societal norms, working as a spy in the dangerous world of wartime intelligence.

Delve into the heart-wrenching journey of Rose, the youngest sister, as she grapples with the loss of a loved one and seeks solace in a forgotten painting that holds a profound secret. And discover the strength and resilience of Constance, the middle sister, as she balances her duties as a mother and wife with her longing for adventure.

A Slice of History Woven with Compelling Personal Narratives

"End of the Second World War" seamlessly intertwines historical events with the gripping personal narratives of the Carter sisters. Experience the end of the war through their eyes, as they witness the devastation and triumph that mark the end of an era.

Immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of post-war London, where celebrations and uncertainties mingle. Witness the sisters as they rebuild their lives, navigate new challenges, and forge a future amidst the echoes of the past.
