Synopsis

In the captivating world of Harlequin Intrigue 1945, danger and desire collide in the thrilling novel Protector. When a relentless threat emerges, a fierce and unwavering protector steps forward to safeguard a vulnerable woman.

Sarah Jones, a dedicated nurse, finds herself caught in a deadly game when she becomes the target of a ruthless criminal. Desperate for protection, she turns to Jake "Hawk" Hawkins, a former soldier with a haunted past.

Hawk is a man shrouded in mystery and scarred by the horrors of war. Despite his reluctance to get involved, he cannot ignore the pleas of a woman in distress. As he takes on the role of Sarah's protector, he uncovers a web of secrets and betrayals that puts both their lives at risk.

Together, Sarah and Hawk embark on a perilous journey filled with heart-stopping action and undeniable chemistry. As they navigate dangerous encounters and uncover the truth behind the threat, their bond deepens, blurring the lines between protector and protected.
